1 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2 Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or 3 private information and documents (“Confidential Materials”) for which special protection
4 may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter
5 the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this agreement is 6 consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses
7 to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the 8 limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable
9 legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential information
10 under seal.

11 2. “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL

12 Without waiving any objection to the discoverability of such materials, “Confidential
13 Material” shall include the following documents and tangible things produced or otherwise
14 exchanged by the parties: (a) medical records and health information; (b) financial information
15 and proprietary documents not in the public domain or subject to public disclosure; and (c) 16 wage information, disciplinary records, and personal identifying information or current and 17 former employees of Defendants (such as social security numbers, birthdates, addresses and 18 phone numbers).

19 3. SCOPE

20 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 21 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2)
22 all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any 23 testimony, conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal
24 confidential material. However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover 25 information that is in the public domain or becomes part of the public domain through trial or 26 otherwise.

1 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

2 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is 3 disclosed or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for 4 prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be 5 disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this 6 agreement. Confidential material must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a 7 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized 8 under this agreement.

9 4.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Materials or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 10 by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose any Confidential Material only to:

11 (a) the receiving party's counsel of record in this action, as well as 12 employees of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this 13 litigation;

14 (b) a party, the officers, directors, managers, and in house counsel of the 15 receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation;

16 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for 17 this litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound"

18
19 (Exhibit A);

20 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;
21 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication
22 of confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging 23 service instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to 24 immediately return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

25 (f) during their depositions, witnesses or potential witnesses in the action to 26 whom disclosure is reasonably necessary, and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and

1 Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or 2 ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that 3 reveal confidential material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be 4 disclosed to anyone as permitted under this agreement;

5 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian
6 or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

7 (h) the videographer who videotapes Confidential Material at a deposition in this
8 litigation;

9 (i) any mediator or discovery referee in this litigation, and employees and 10 personnel of said mediator or discovery referee;

11 (j) any other individuals agreed to in writing by the designating party.

12 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing Confidential Material or discussing 13 or referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating 14 party to determine whether the designating party will remove the confidential designation,
15 whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed 16 order is warranted. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and 17 the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material
18 under seal.

19 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

20 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.

21 Each party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this 22 agreement must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under 23 the appropriate standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts
24 of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other 25 portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not 26 warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

[PROPOSED] STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER
(Cause No. 2:17-cv-00023-JLR)

(206) 343-2700

1 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 2 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 3 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary
4 expenses and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions. If it comes to 5 a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not 6 qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other parties that it is 7 withdrawing the mistaken designation.

8 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 9 agreement, or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies
10 for protection under this agreement must be clearly so designated before or when the material 11 is disclosed or produced.

12 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents
13 and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 14 proceedings), (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), the designating party must 15 affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that contains confidential material. If only a 16 portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the producing party also 17 must clearly identify the protected portion(s).

18 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the 19 parties and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition, or 20 other pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so 21 designate other testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within 22 fifteen days after receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding,
23 designate portions of the transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party
24 desires to protect confidential information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-25 trial conference.

(206) 343-2700

(c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word "CONFIDENTIAL." If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party's right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of 1 persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and 2 those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and 3 burdens on other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall 4 continue to maintain the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the 5 challenge.

6 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION.

8 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that 9 compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as 10 "CONFIDENTIAL," that party must:

- 11 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the subpoena or court order;
- 12 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and
- 13 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

14 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

15 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed
16 confidential material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, 17 the receiving party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the 18 unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the 19 protected material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were 20 made of all the terms of this agreement, and (d) request that such person or persons execute the 21 "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

1 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE
2 PROTECTED MATERIAL

3 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 4 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 5 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This 6 provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery
7 order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties
8 agree to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

9 10. NONTERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

10 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 11 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts
12 and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of 13 destruction.

14 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all 15 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence,
16 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert 17 work product, even if such materials contain confidential material and discovery as part of the 18 complete client file, which either counsel may maintain for up to six years as recommended by 19 the WSBA Guide to Best Practices for Client File Retention and Management, even if such 20 materials contain confidential material.

21 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 22 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.
